Press Release

Hope Tipton, Esq., Director of Project HEAL, selected to receive 2012 Women's Bar Association Annual Pro Bono Award.

Maryland Volunteer Lawyers Service, the largest pro bono organization in Maryland, provides critically needed legal assistance to 3,000 low-income Marylanders each year and is governed by a twenty-one member Board of Directors.

Baltimore, MD, April 13, 2012: Maryland Volunteer Lawyers Service (MVLS) announces that Hope Tipton, Esq., Director of Project HEAL, has been selected to receive the 2012 Women's Bar Association Annual Pro Bono Award for Baltimore City/Baltimore County/Carroll County. Project HEAL is an MVLS program and in partnership with The Johns Hopkins Children's Center (Hopkins Children's), which provides free advocacy and legal services for low-income families and children, who receive on-going medical services at Hopkins Children's. Ms. Tipton is the founding director of Project HEAL and has been a staff attorney with MVLS since September 2003. Ms. Tipton will receive her award at the Annual Women's Bar Association Meeting, May 4-5, 2012.
