Any use (other than printing) of Content without MVLS' prior written approval is prohibited.

You may ask for legal help from MVLS by completing this application.

To Apply For Legal Services.

You may ask for legal help from MVLS by completing this application. We will use the information on your application and your responses to any follow-up questions to determine if you qualify for MVLS Services based on our eligibility requirements. Eligibility is determined based on income, assets and type of legal problem. Therefore, we cannot accept every case and you do not become a MVLS client unless and until we formally determine that you are eligible for services and officially tell you that your case has been accepted. We are not responsible if your application is not received due to server, internet problems or other technical difficulties.

You agree to provide truthful and accurate information throughout our relationship. We may reject your application or close your case if we believe, in our sole discretion, that you have made any misrepresentations to us.

To provide comprehensive services, MVLS and/or the volunteer attorney to whom your case was referred, may search public and private databases for additional legal issues you may have. This information will remain confidential and will not be acted upon without your understanding and approval.

All intake information you provide or that MVLS collects is stored in MVLS' case management system. MVLS takes reasonable steps in line with industry standards to protect your information from outside intrusion and will not disclose your information except as necessary to process your legal matters.

By submitting your application or contact information, you agree that we may send you newsletters and emails from time to time about events and other MVLS matters. If you do not want MVLS to contact you for any reason other than with respect to your case, you may unsubscribe by contacting MVLS at info@mvslaw.org or 410-539-6800. Each email you receive will also give you the opportunity to unsubscribe from receiving general communications from MVLS.
